

Artistic Couples

Geoff McClain – photography Schuyler McClain – works on paper
Vickie Mathas – fiber art Paul Mathas - photography

A unique mix of artists shares their creative energies in a variety of media and artistic expressions. They are showing together at the Palmyra Cove Nature Park Gallery April 1 – 28.

You are invited to meet the artists at a Reception on Sunday, April 15, from 1 to 3 at the Cove Gallery.

Geoff's main source of inspiration for his photography is nature. He is always looking for something special to capture in the view finder. His camera is his voice.

Schuyler has created mixed media works on paper that combine collage, printmaking, colored pencil, and painting together for her whimsical slices of life.

Vickie is a mixed media fiber artist who combines quilting with other needle arts for a rich expression in textured surface design with refreshing images from her artist's eye.

Paul's digital photo expressions are motivated by his "What if Factor" in expanding his eye in finding unusual things in common objects. What if I tried....
