

Palmyra Cove Nature Park Second Annual Sustainability Fair

The background features a light blue sky with white clouds. Several colorful butterflies (blue, yellow, orange, pink) are scattered across the scene. In the foreground, there is a green hill with various flowers, including white daisies and pink blossoms.

Saturday, April 17, 2010

10:00 am to 2:00 pm

Join us and meet local companies and store owners that promote using sustainable energy sources and/or sell energy conservative, recycled products. Live animal shows promoting conservation will be featured for children. Tasty fare will be sold by neighborhood vendors.
